CIRCULAR SAWS,

AND MANDRELS FOR CIRCULAR SAWS; For sale by H. W. CORBETT.

FROM MONTANA.

We find the following in the Helena Republican of August 4th:

BUTTE CITY DIGGINGS.

A letter from Silver Bow says: At Butte City, seven miles above Silver Bow, the placer diggings are very ex- tensive. They are like those of Carpenter's Bar, near Ophir, shallow, but paying close up to the grass roots. Their greatest depth is about four feet. With a good sup- ply of water, they may be extended over several square miles. To provide this, Messrs. Humphreys & Allison have turned the water on the Atlantic side of the divide, and are now about to bring them by a ditch they have con- structed along the upper edge of all their placers. Should the supply prove sufficient, there will be room for many hundred miners this fall and next spring. The pay is reckoned at from $10 to $12 to the hand, and the cost of the water at fifty cents per inch. The lodes of this dis- trict are of copper and lead ores, both containing silver.

SEVEN MILE CREEK DIGGINGS.

"Montana's mines are exhausted." So say the croak- ers, and yet new discoveries are being constantly made within sight of the town. Among the more recent of these discoveries, is that of an auriferous bar, one and a half or two miles long, situated upon Seven Mile creek, and sev- en miles distant from this city. This bar yields fine scale gold, and has recently been found to pay at the rate of seven dollars per day to the man, with small sluices. A company has been formed for working this bar, and it is intended to bring one hundred inches of water from Seven Mile creek, through a ditch two miles in length, and to have the ditch completed within two weeks. It is from two to six feet to the bed-rock, and by the use of large ground sluices, it is expected that fifteen dollars per day to the hand can be made. It is supposed that this bar alone will give employment to nearly a thousand men.

STAMPEDE TO NEW GULCH.

A stampede took place on Tuesday from Uncle Ben's and Hope gulches, to a gulch situated but a little dis- tance from them, on the head waters of Little Prickly Pear. Good prospects have been found and a district formed. We are not in receipt of the particulars, but learn that the ground has been all taken up, so that it will do no good for the boys to run.

DEER LODGE VALLEY.

The grasshoppers have destroyed every green thing in this valley except the grass and willows. The damage done there in two weeks, is estimated at $150,000.

TRAGEDY AT DIAMOND CITY.

On the 2d, a row occurred between two partners named Green and Foster, during which, to prevent the taking of life, a man named Philip Mallory stepped between the parties. The [illegible] Foster, immediately turned upon Mallory and in the melee which ensued, shot him through the heart, killing him almost instantly. Foster is in the hands of the civil authorities.

The following items are from the Helena Republican of August 11th:

MOSQUITO GULCH—A NEW DISCOVERY.

One week ago to-day, a party of miners from the other side, discovered a new gold bearing gulch between eighty and ninety miles from here, in Jefferson county, on this side of the range and opposite the head of Silver Bow creek. This new [illegible] is called Mosquito gulch, pays for a distance of eight miles, both in gulch and bar claims and has all the facilities for being easily worked, be- ing shallow and water plentiful. Some portions of the ground have been found to pay from fifty cents to one and a half dollars to the pan in coarse gold, and, as a nat- ural consequence of such good results, the whole gulch has before this been taken up. There are over three hundred people already in the Mosquito Diggings, and Silver Bow camp is entirely deserted.

[illegible] IN HELENA.

It is seldom that a city increases more rapidly in popu- lation and improvements than has this city of Helena. Less than two years ago there was not a single cabin in Last Chance Gulch, where there are, to-day probably not less than one thousand buildings and eight thousand people.

A MELANCHOLY AFFAIR.

Joe Follingsby was accidentally shot last week by his friend Geo. M[illegible]. As near as we can learn, the two were upon a prospecting expedition, and were camped about forty miles from Blackfoot, on the head waters of the Prickly Pear. During the night, M[illegible] heard a noise in the direction of the horses, and raising upon his blanket, he discovered the form of a human being creep- ing in the grass. His thoughts being upon Indians, he instantly fired, and killed his partner and best friend, Follingsby, who, it seems, had left the side of M[illegible] to ascertain the cause of some disturbance among the stock.

DISTRIBUTION OF TROOPS.

The [illegible] reaches us from Benton that it has been [illegible] to station troops at Benton and Sun river as well as at the Judith.

FROM WALLA WALLA.

We clip from the Statesman of the 24th:

FIRE AT SIMCOE.

We are informed by Judge Wyche, who has just re- turned from Simcoe, that a fire occurred there on last Friday, destroying two of the buildings occupied by the employees of the Agency, and that it was with great dif- ficulty the fire was arrested and the remaining buildings saved. Rev. Mr. Wilbur, the Agent, was absent in at- tendance on the Methodist Conference. The fire was sup- posed to have originated from a stove pipe, and occurred about 10 o'clock, A. M.

[illegible] HOT WEATHER.

The [illegible] of 1866 [illegible] to be marked as the hot season. Certainly such continuous hot weather gives it claim to that distinction. As a specimen we give Wednes- day afternoon of this week, when the thermometer for several hours, in the coolest part of this office, stood at 101°. When at all exposed it ran up to 112° and 114°. So great was the heat that our composition rollers run down, and at this writing it is doubtful whether we shall be able to work the paper off.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.

The work of grading and paving Main street is already [illegible] from the bridge to the intersection of Second street, and thus far the contractors appear to be doing their work well.

The following is from the special correspondent of the [illegible], under date Aug. 25:

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Y[illegible]day, while Mr. H. Livingstone was engaged working around a threshing machine at Coppel, about twenty miles from this place, he accidentally stepped into the machine while it was at full speed. The belt was in- stantly detached from the cylinder, but not in time to prevent one of his legs from being drawn into the ma- chine and torn into shreds up to the hip. The machine was as quickly as possible taken to pieces, Mr. Living- stone relieved, and every attention given him. He only lived a short time after being taken out. Mr. Living- stone was a[illegible] and prominent citizen of the county, having been elected one of the County Commissioners at the June election on the C[illegible] ticket. He was about forty years of age, and leaves a wife and family to [illegible] his loss.

FROM BLACKFOOT.

Sam. Buchanan, of Waldron & Co.'s Express, arrived last evening seven days from Reynolds City. He brought down as passengers L. Schwabacher, of Schwabacher Bros. & Co., of this place, and Mr. Fitzgerrald, of the Dalles. Also some $35,000 in dust, and quite an assort- ment of letters and express matter. They report dull times at Blackfoot, the only new excitement being new mines on Salmon river, near Big Hole or Three Creeks, about 160 miles from Elk Creek. Mr. Buchanan will re- turn next Thursday. Another express from Blackfoot will be due here about the 5th of September.

FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA.

From the Victoria Telegraph of the 26th, we clip the following:

The steamer Enterprise arrived down yesterday after- noon at 4:15, with 30 passengers and a small freight. She brought only a small river express and mail.

NEW WESTMINSTER ITEMS.

The Columbian contains a letter from Capt. Gray, of the barque Jeddo, to his charterers, Messrs. Welsh, Sproat & Co., of San Francisco, in which he speaks in the highest terms of the harbor of Burrard Inlet, the quality of the lumber and the facilities for loading.

The Firemen's picnic to Langley on Thursday was at- tended by 327 people, and was a very pleasant affair.

Mr. James Duncan, of Metlakatlah, writes a long letter to the Columbia confirming the proposed law to legalize the sale of liquor to Indians.

LILLOOET AND DOUGLAS.

From a packer who arrived here last night from Kam- loops by way of Lillooet and Douglas, we learn a few par- ticulars of interest. The town of Lillooet was lively and the people cheerful. The crops were splendid in the vi- cinity and all the way down. There was nothing new in regard to the Bridge River diggings.

Our informant visited the Douglas Portage diggings on his way down, and reports very favorably of their pros- pects. He washed up a pan himself, and obtained about four cents. There are only some five or six French Ca- nadians at work, and they have taken out $10 to $13 per day to the hand, although they do not understand min- ing. The gold is taken from a stratum of coarse gravel about three feet down, and no attempt has yet been made to reach the bed-rock, although our informant believes that pay will be found there. The diggings possess every facility.

FROM VICTORIA

Capt. Erskine of the Fidelitier favors us with files of Victoria papers to the 26th. We clip from the Telegraph the following:

Joe Eden has accepted the challenge of George Wilson, of Cariboo, who recently published in the Sentinel a chal- lenge to any man in the two colonies to fight him him for $2,000 a side.

A man named Wm. Donaldson was brought up in the police court to-day, charged with assaulting one Charles Ridley by striking him in the face with his fist, seriously damaging his jaw. Complaints against the prisoner were also preferred by Wm. Perkins for assault, and J. Sealy for damaging a door. * * * Shortly after Donaldson was dismissed a man named Menis arrived at the police court and complained that he also had been as- saulted by the same man, who had bit off a piece of his ear, Menis producing the piece wrapped in a piece of paper.

Messrs. J. P. Davies sold several horses and cows with calves, to-day, at very good prices, the latter ranging from $36 to $56. The stallion brought $160. Two mules brought $95. Horses $35 to $65.

Dan Kreuenberg, a Dutch butcher at Salem, has been held to appear in the circuit court and answer to a charge of sheep stealing.

FROM THE PLAINS.

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS.

The Helena Republican of August 4th says:

Further advices from the B[illegible] cut-off are received. About the 12th of July, at the Big Horn crossing, three Sioux Indians came down from the bluffs and ran off six- teen head of mules belonging to the trains of Mr. Beers, of Chicago, and Mr. Robinson, of Quincy, Illinois. Twenty or thirty of the whites then jumped upon their mules and horses and went after the Indians. While they were gone, ten of the red skins, who had been secreted, rushed upon the trains and ran off all the stock left there, in- cluding some belonging to some emigrants. Three hun- dred shots were fired at the Indians, seemingly without effect.

[illegible] MURDERS.

The day following this attack, a little skirmish took place in which a white man was wounded in the head. Up to the 12th no w[illegible] had been killed, but it is rumored that twenty-five of them were murdered on the Bozeman route before the 20th ult. The 18th U. S. Regulars, Col. Carrington commanding, are being stationed along the road.

MODERN LEXICON.—For the convenience of our readers and the guidance of future compilers of dictionaries, we present the following definitions:

Johnson—The "policy" man.

Johnsonian—A peculiar policy promulgated by one Andrew Johnson, Esq., that rebels, after do- ing all they could to destroy a country, shall, having been defeated in the field, have increased power over the nation, to the detriment and per- secution of the loyal men who fought to crush the rebellion.

Johnsonite—An exponent and apostle of John- son. Reconstructed rebels and Constitutional Democrats are the most prominent of this class.

Copperj[illegible]—A compound word, derived from the elements Copp[illegible] and Johnson—a term lately applied to weak-kneed politicians and others, who valued full pockets more than correct principles, and suddenly became blatant supporters of John- sonianism.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 29, 1866.

Fruits of "My Policy."

Eastern journals are now reaching us filled with the most horrible details of the late massacre of loyalists, white and black, by the rebels of New Orleans. The accounts form a chapter of horrors which has had no parallel on this continent, even in work of untamed savages. The massacres at Fort Pillow and Lawrence were perpetrated in the midst of war, and therefore found in the judgment of a portion of mankind, at least a partial palliation. But the outbreak at New Orleans was totally without extenuating circumstances. The massacre that ensued was the work of men to whose native ferocity was added a savage hatred of the Government, and especially of the people in their midst who had remained loyal to their country during the rebellion. It was an onslaught against "Radicalism," so-called,—a term which is particularly odious to traitors, as designating those by whom they were foiled in their efforts to build up a Government founded on their darling system of human slavery. Emboldened by Johnson's denunciations of the "Radicals," the supporters of his "policy" in New Orleans proceeded to carry their "tribune's" views and principles to their natural conclusion. If "Radicalism" be the abomination which Johnson asserts it is, why shouldn't it be expelled from New Orleans? If Johnson can stand up at the Capital and denounce prominent loyalists as "Radicals," villains and traitors deserving of death, why shouldn't the "reconstructed" improve on his hint and go a step farther? The massacre was therefore the direct result of the teachings of the author of "my policy."

Besides the accounts which reach us though the Eastern press, we have additional information by telegraph relative to this atrocious massacre. Sheridan's dispatches, hitherto suppressed by the President, are now published, showing the criminality of the civil authorities, and asserting that the Mayor and police were responsible for the frightful butchery. It is noticeable that all the accounts, including that of General Sheridan, concur in stating that the act was one of premeditation on the part of the authorities of the city. The Mayor of New Orleans is the same who was Mayor of that city when it surrendered to Gen. Butler in 1861. Throughout the war he was a rebel of the most malignant character. He was pardoned by the President expressly to qualify him for holding the office he had once prostituted to the service of treason. So vicious a rebel is he now, that he incites a riot against loyal citizens, ending in wholesale murder. So dangerous a man is he, and so frightful his crimes, that General Sheridan recommends his removal,—a recommendation which has no further effect than to bring the distinguished officer who makes it, under the displeasure of the President. "My policy" is indeed marching on.

But is urged in justification of the massacre that the Convention was revolutionary in its character, and threatened the public peace. It certainly was revolutionary, so far as regarded its purpose to propose amendments to the Constitution of the State. But it made no attempts to commit acts of violence. It contemplated nothing of the kind. It was a peaceable body, peaceably assembled under the laws. Its members were justly entitled to protection until they should commit an overt act against the public peace. General Sheridan, though evidently regarding the Convention with disfavor, saw no reason for interfering with its proceedings. It was reserved for rebels whose desire for peace is attested by the work of the last five years, to see in this unarmed Convention a movement calculated to disturb the public tranquility. Zealous conservators of the in public peace be these same rebels. Their action plunging the country into war, and their riotous, murderous conduct since the close of the struggle show how anxious they are to preserve the peace on all occasions.

It is very certain that the New Orleans rebels would never have perpetrated this massacre had not the course of the President been such as to lead them to suppose that they would be sustained in preventing the Convention, peaceably or otherwise, from holding its sessions. His dispatches to the Attorney General of Louisiana one of the leaders of the mob, gave direct encouragement to the rioters. He could not have done more had he been present and headed it himself. Nobody supposes that he desired the massacre to occur; but he could have taken no other course to bring it about than he actually pursued. And what is worse, these tragic occurrences are likely to be repeated at New Orleans or elsewhere in the South at any time. "My policy" has prepared the rebels for engaging in these scenes of blood whenever and wherever they find loyal men upon whom they can wreak their murderous revenge.

The individual who conducts the Herald accuses us of making false statements in regard to the political character of the Massachusetts delegation—which, by the by, did not represent Massachusetts to the Philadelphia Convention. He says that that delegation was led "by General Couch, distinguished throughout the war as an able leader of the Union armies; George Ashmun, the President of the Convention which first nominated Mr. Lincoln for the Presidency, and John Quincy Adams, son of the Minister to England, all personal and political friends of Mr. Lincoln up to the hour of his death." Mark, now, how plain a tale shall put this shameless old falsifier down. General Couch was present at the Convention; but he was not distinguished as an able leader of the Union armies throughout the war; neither was he a political friend of Mr. Lincoln's. He was a "General" of the McClellan and Fitz John Porter school, who wished to carry on the war on "conservative" principles so as not to hurt the rebels. He was, therefore, a complete failure. To show how firm a political friend of Mr. Lincoln's he was, it is only necessary to mention that he supported McClellan for the Presidency in 1864, and in 1865 was the Copperhead candidate for Governor of Massachusetts—getting beat by Colonel Bullock at the rate of four votes to one. So much for General Couch. George Ashmun was not present at the Philadelphia Convention,—a fact which was expressly stated in a Philadelphia dispatch of August 14th. Neither does it appear that John Quincy Adams attended, as no mention was made of his name in the proceedings of the Convention. Thus is Beriah's "leader" of Saturday knocked completely into "pi." We would still further retort upon him with his own chosen expressions of "blackguard and liar," were not these epithets entirely inadequate to fitly describe the character of the perditionable old malignant, who, with toothless rage, hisses his impotent venom at everybody whom his Copperhead vision, bleared and obstructed by the dull season of the dog days, happens to alight upon.

"Moses" meets a short rebuff at the very outset of his electioneering tour. Nobody can be found at Philadelphia to give him a reception. He ought by all means to have instructed the pardoned rebels who attended his Convention at that city the other day to remain until his arrival so that he would not be wholly without friends in the great city.

The Governors of Oregon, California and Nevada have united in a short address to the Philadelphia Convention of Southern Unionists, expressing on behalf of the three Pacific States a hearty sympathy with the movement, and a desire that the principles set forth in the call may be triumphantly maintained.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO AUGUST 28.

Monetary and Commercial.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Post's money article says: Gold is scarce, lending at one-sixteenth premium. The loan market is easy, but unsettled. Stocks are unsettled and irregular. Cotton, 30c. Wheat dull and lower. The Commercial's money article says: The feature of the day is the great activity in Government securities and an important advance in prices. The demand abroad for five-twenties is large and they are scarce.

The Death of Dean Richmond.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Dean Richmond died this morning at the residence of Samuel J. Tilden, 15 Gramercy Place. His disease first manifested itself while at Branford, three weeks ago, but he attended the Saratoga and Philadelphia Conventions afterwards, visited Washington, returning here much reduced in strength. He was at once taken to Tilden's residence, where the most eminent physicians of the city were called, but from the first his case was hopeless. His wife and family were with him. The World says he was struck down by a combination of internal disorders, greatly aggravated by his labors to bring about a successful result at Philadelphia. He was born at Woodstock, Vermont, March 31st, 1804.

Moses Meets a Rebuff at the Outset of his Tour.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27.—The City Council and Board of Trade both having refused to take any part in the reception of the President, a meeting was held at the Merchants' Exchange to arrange a proper reception. At the Crown Exchange a resolution to join the merchants in this programme was offered, but it received only four votes and was rejected. The journeymen tailors have resolved to turn out en masse.

Death—Sub-Treasury Disbursements.

BOSTON, Aug. 27.—Rev. John Pierpont died last night at his residence in Medford, Mass., aged 81 years.

The disbursements at the Sub-Treasury on account of the temporary loan reached nearly $1,400,000 in currency.

Gen. Sheridan's Suppressed Dispatches—Villainy Exposed.

CHICAGO, August 27.—The full official correspondence concerning the New Orleans Riots, fills nearly a page of the New York papers. The following are Sheridan's dispatches:

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 1.—To U. S. GRANT: General—You are doubtless aware of the serious riot in this city. A political body styling itself the Convention of 1864, met on the 30th of July, for, as it is alleged, the purpose of remodelling the present constitution of the State. The leaders were political agitators and revolutionary men, and the action of the Convention was liable to produce breaches of public peace. I had made up my mind to arrest the head men if the proceedings of the Convention were calculated to disturb the tranquility of the Department, but I had no cause for acting until they had committed an overt act. My official duty called me to Texas, and the Mayor of the city, during my absence suppressed the Convention by the use of police force, and in so doing attacked the members of the Convention and a party of two hundred negroes with fire arms, clubs and knives in a manner so unnecessary and atrocious as to compel me to say that it was murder. About 40 whites and blacks were thus killed, and about 160 wounded. Everything is now quiet, but I deem it best to maintain military supremacy in the city for a few days. I believe the sentiment of the general community is one of great regret at this unnecessary cruelty and that the police could have made any arrests they saw fit without sacrificing lives.

(Signed) P. H. SHERIDAN,
Major-General Commanding.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2.—To U. S. GRANT: General—The more information I obtain of the affair of July 30, the more revolting it becomes. It was no riot—it was an absolute massacre by the police which was not equalled in murderous cruelty by that of Fort Pillow. It was a murder which the Mayor and police perpetrated without a shadow of necessity. Furthermore, I believe it was premeditated, and every indication points to this. I recommend the removing of this bad man. I believe it would be hailed with the sincerest gratification by two-thirds of the population. There has been a feeling of insecurity on the part of the people here on account of this man, which is now so much increased that the safety of life and property does not rest with the civil authority, but the military. (Signed) P. H. SHERIDAN,
Major-General Commanding.

The Presidential Guillotine Busy.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Washington specials say that in consequence of the President's tour through the country, the guillotine has been very busy, and probably four hundred more appointments were made yesterday, twenty-seven of them second-class postmasters and internal revenue officers. Randall has booked about one thousand names of postmasters who have replied adversely to his circular, and appointments will issue as rapidly as they can be made out by the clerks.

Cowan Stumping for Copperhead Clymer.

The Pennsylvania removals have been made and Cowan is on the stump advocating Clymer's election as Governor. There is no further talk of Clymer's withdrawing. He won't withdraw.

High Carnival of Office-holders.

Cornelius Wendell has been appointed public printer. Washington has been swarming with office-hunters, and politicians will now enjoy two or three weeks dullness. There has not been such a time in Washington since the palmy days of a change of administration between the Whigs and Democrats.

About Gen. Sheridan's Dispatches.

The dispatches of Gen. Sheridan about the New Orleans riots, are attracting much attention and comment. They were fairly smoked out by the Clymer and radical press, and it is believed Sheridan demanded their publication as a measure of justice to himself, since the only one of his dispatches given to the public, had been garbled in important particulars.

The Soldiers' Bounty Question.

The soldiers' bounty question is now being much talked about, and it is claimed that the commission heretofore appointed, consisting of Surgeon-General Barnes, Gen. Canby and others, have reported in favor of paying bounties, but that their report is supposed to be for political effect on the soldiers. So much of this, however, appears to be true, that the Secretary of the Treasury has ordered that no bounties be paid.

NEWS BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 27.—Cotton steady; sales to-day of 10,000 bales middling uplands at 13½c. Breadstuffs dull and declining.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Consols 89⅝ for money; 5-20's 72¾.

LEIPSIC, Aug. 25.—A large and influential meeting held here declared in favor of the union of Saxony with Prussia.

BIRMINGHAM, Aug. 27.—The reform demonstration to-day was an immense success, and passed off without disturbance of any kind. The platform adopted favors residential manhood suffrage. An address was delivered this evening in support of the platform.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 27, evening.—Cotton closed steady at 13¾. Breadstuffs flat.

LONDON, Aug. 27, evening.—Consols closed at 89; 5-20's 72. The money market is easier.

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—The peace treaty signed at Prague will not be made public till ratified by the contracting powers. It is believed, however, that the general features are almost identical with the original preliminaries intimated at Nicolsburg on the 26th of July.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—Mark L. McDonald brought suit in the 4th District Court to-day against the estate of Geo. L. Seaton to recover $7,500, alleged to be due him from the sale of the Oneida Mine, situated in Amador county, as his share of the profit from the said sale. The complaint alleges that he entered into an arrangement with Geo. W. Seaton, and A. H. Rose for the sale of the Oneida Mine, by which the three were to divide between them the amount from its sale exceeding $75,000. The plaintiff alleges that the mine was sold by Seaton and Rose at a profit of $30,000, which was divided between Rose and the estate of Seaton, he having died in the meantime. McDonald now sues the estate of Seaton for one-half of the money it received, claiming it under an alleged contract entered into during Seaton's life-time.

Horace Hawes of this city has given, by deed of trust, the new building recently erected by him near Redwood City, together with a lot of ground of nearly two acres, for the purpose of establishing and maintaining in that village a select or academic school. The property is supposed to be worth about $8,000, and is, thus far, the largest gift ever made for educational purposes by any citizen of this State.

The funeral of E. W. T. Sloan took place at 11 o'clock to-day. When the procession moved from the twelfth district court room in the city hall to the new Presbyterian church, on O'Farrell street, where the funeral services were had, the remains were followed to the grave by nearly all of the lawyers of this city, the desire appearing unanimous to pay the last sad token of respect to the memory of one who had been not only an ornament to his profession but to mankind.

Some stranger sold a bundle of what purported to be old rags to a junk dealer on Davis street, last Saturday. While the dealer was overhauling his purchase yesterday, he found in the package the dead body of a still-born child.

The Camanche, turreted iron clad, it is expected, will be ordered to Mare Island, when she will go out of commission, and her officers and crew will be distributed on the Jamestown and other vessels.

Thomas Dickerson and Patrick O'Brien, natives of Ireland, have been committed to Stockton as insane.

A dispatch from Pacheco, Contra Costa county, states that a steam engine in that place was blown up last evening, killing the engineer, breaking the leg of Mr. C. S. Lease, and killing two horses. The engine was completely demolished and scattered a distance of five hundred yards.

In reply to a letter from a merchant of this city, Frank Soule, Collector of Internal Revenue, states that under the new law, shipping receipts and domestic bills of lading are exempt from the stamp tax.

The Markets.

Flour—There is a little more inquiry to-day for export. Superfine half sacks per 100 lbs, $4 75@4 87½; qr. sacks $4 87½@5; extra half sacks $5 12½@5 25; qr. sacks $5 37½@5 50.

Wheat—fair, $1 50, choice, $1 55, inferior $1 40 per 100 lbs.

Barley—Good brewing, old crop, $1 05. We learn that the entire crop of a ranch across the Bay, comprising about 12,000 sacks choice brewing has been sold to brewers in this city at a price equivalent to $1 05 per 100 lbs delivered here.

Oats—good shipping new, for export $1 42½, choice new $1 60.

Potatoes—Mission, 50@60c per 100 lbs.

Gold—Legal Tenders—Mining Stocks.

Private telegrams dated New York Yesterday quote gold at $148½, the latter quotation being the latest. Rumors of lower quotations, so far as we have been able to trace them, are unreliable parties reported as receiving such telegrams denying it.

The market for legal tenders is quiet and inclined to droop. The latest quotations by leading brokers are 71¼ buying, and 71¾ selling. One broker made a large sale at 71½ cash. The demand for exchange and bullion for Thursday promises to be light. Leading bankers quote coin drafts on Atlantic cities at 2¼; currency do., 42c premium on gold. Telegraphic transfers, 3 per cent.

Mining stocks continue dull and depressed. Sales of Crown Point at $9 50. From the morning Board yesterday Belcher advanced $2 50 and Ophir $1. Yellow Jacket declined $15; Chollar Potosi, $7; Savage, $5; Confidence, $1; Bullion, $2 50, and Overman, $1 50.

Shipping.

Arrived—Aug. 27th, bark Caroline, 9 days from Seabeck.

Sailed—Aug. 27th, British bark Annie Sharp, for Swansea; French brig Pioneer, for Sydney; Aug. 28th, ship Panama, for Sydney.

THE DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTIONS and the PRESIDENT, accompanied by GEN. GRANT AND STAFF, on their trip to the Northwest, it is said all wear those ELEGANT AND COMFORTABLE SUITS, that may be seen at KOHN & FISHEL'S at the ST. LOUIS STORE, NO. 111 FRONT STREET. Come in and get a fit before they are all gone.

PHOTOGRAPHIC DIAMONDS.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, at their GALLERY, 89 First Street, lead all others in the production of every kind of PICTURE, and hold the same rank in the Photographic Art as the diamond, ruby, topaz, onyx and emerald do among the precious gems. Within the last few days, this establishment has executed some specimens of exquisite workmanship and is fully prepared to hold its position at the front without fear of successful competition.

The fall races over the Bybee track Jackson county are to open September 13th

The Statesman has information that Dr S R. Uncles, who last spring was reported as having died at sea between San Francisco and Portland, is alive and practising his profession at Chambersburg, Pennsylvania

The Oregon Mammoth one of the newly discovered quartz ledges on Powder river is reported by an Auburn correspondent to be very rich and the opinion is expressed that it will prove but little inferior to the famous Poorman.

Great excitement is prevailing in Baker county over the discovery of quartz ledges about twenty miles from Auburn on the head waters of Powder river Not less than 15 000 feet had been claimed within a few days after the discovery The placer mines of that county are yielding well

We learn, says the Jacksonville Reporter that the new quartz mill of the Occidental Company of Jackson creek, will be completed on or about the 20th of next month, when they will commence crushing rock from the Davenport lead We hope they may soon crush out a fortune as a fitting reward for their enterprise and energy

The millers and farmers of Jackson county held a meeting as per previous call on the 18th for the purpose of devising measures to control the prices for grain A committee of ten men was appointed to draw up an agreement and to further perfect the means of securing the objects of the meeting The meeting is to be reconvened on the 1st day of September

A letter from Express Ranch Baker county states that four Indian raids have lately been made in that immediate vicinity One hundred and sixty head of stock have been stolen since Generals Halleck and Steele passed through on their way to the Columbia. The Indians surprised a party of three men on Willow Creek on the 14th and killed one of them named Samuel Leonard the others narrowly escaping Indians are seen almost every day in the vicinity of Express Ranch The people in the Burnt river settlements are much alarmed, fearing they will be murdered unless help is soon afforded them

W. C. Myer of Ashland Oregon, passed through town last Friday says the Yreka Journal, with six fine looking yearling colts, of the Coberg stock All of them appeared to weigh 900 or 1000 pounds, and looked as gay and spirited as any horses we have seen on the coast Two of them were harnessed to one of Jake Martin's buggies, and traveled along as though they were at home in the harness, and looked as sleek and neat as the most fastidious could desire. They took the first premium at the Oregon State Fair and are now en route to the California State Fair, to be held in September

THE LATEST STYLE OF FINE ART PICTURES.

The attention of the public is invited to the fact that JOSEPH BUCHTEL'S PIONEER GALLERY corner of First and Morrison streets, Portland Oregon, is the only place in this State where those beautiful SUN PEARLS are produced in a manner equal to the art in San Francisco, New York or European cities. Having employed the services of the best Operator upon the Pacific Coast, MR. BARNASCO POLICARPO, of Paris, late of San Francisco the undersigned is better prepared than any other Gallery to furnish all styles of Pictures known to the Art The public are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens, which will be sufficient to convince the most skeptical of the truth of the above statements. Critics are invited to call.

S. T.—1860.—X

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude palpitation of the heart lack of appetite distress after eating torpid liver constipation &c deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect They are exceedingly agreeable perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required

They purify strengthen and invigorate
They create a healthy appetite
They are an antidote to change of water and diet
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen sassafras roots and herbs all preserved in perfectly pure St Croix rum For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle

Beware of impostors Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U S Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene and our signature on a fine steel plate side label See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk is an impostor Any person imitating this bottle or selling any other material therein whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U S Law, and will be so prosecuted by us We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles &c who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters The demand for Drake s Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen merchants, &c., is incredible The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers physicians hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. " But how?" you ask;
No answer this an easy task
Strengthen the STOMACH and sustain
The NERVES, the servants of the brain.
The LIVER keep in active play
And regulate from day to day.
Each organ at its own nature s plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN,
And like a watch that s kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system s tone and strength renew,
And thereby cheer the spirits, too.
"How," you inquire, can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
"HOSTETTER'S BITTERS," we reply,
Is HEALTH s surest PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution and prolonging life no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries
Medicine s grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent
And if you d be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the unprepared,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only [illegible] to be fore armed with

HOSTETTER S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

Dyspepsia s pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colic and dyspeptic pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Billious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury.
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer day by day;
Nervous prostration mental gl[illegible]
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER's BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to palliate, alone, but cure

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

To wanderers on sea or land
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households here, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities too;
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground,
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle aged, and old,
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy,
To all the strengthless weak and pale,
Who droop yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health s most potent element

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice

To be levied on the first day of May, and be due and payable on the first of June of each year until 1870 and no longer.

The following portion of the law is inserted as explanatory of so much of it as relates to incomes:

That there shall be levied, collected and paid annually upon the gains, profits and income of every person residing in the United States, or any citizen of the United States residing abroad, whether derived from any kind of property, rents, interest, dividends, or salaries from any profession, trade, or employment or vocation, carried on in the United States or elsewhere, or from any other source whatever, a duty of five per centum on the amount so derived over six hundred dollars, and not exceeding five thousand dollars, and a duty of ten per centum on the amount exceeding five thousand dollars; and a like duty shall be levied, collected and paid annually upon the gains, profits and income of every business, trade, or profession carried on in the United States by persons residing without the United States, and not citizens thereof. And this duty herein provided for shall be assessed, collected and paid upon the gains, profits, and income for the year ending the thirty-first day of December next preceding the time for levying, collecting and paying said duty. That in estimating the gains, profits and income of any person, there shall be included all income derived from interest upon notes, bonds and other securities of the United States; profits realized within the year from sales of real estate purchased within the year, or within two years previous to the year for which income is estimated; interest received or accrued upon all notes, bonds and mortgages, or other forms of indebtedness bearing interest, whether paid or not, if good and collectable, less the interest which has become due from said person during the year; the amount of all premium on gold coupons; the amount of sales of live stock, sugar, wool, butter, cheese, pork, beef, mutton or other meats, hay and grain or other vegetable or other production, being the growth or produce of the estate of such person, not including any part thereof consumed directly by the family all other gains, profits and income derived from any source whatever, and the share of any person of the gains and profits of all companies, whether incorporated or partnership, who would be entitled to the same, if divided or otherwise, except the amount of income received from institutions or corporations whose officers, as required by law, withhold a per centum of the dividends made by such institutions, and pay the same to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or other officer authorized to receive the same, and except that portion of the salary or pay received for services in the civil, military, naval or other service of the United States, including Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress from which the tax has been deducted. And in estimating the gains, profits and income of any person in addition to six hundred dollars exempt from income tax, all National, State, county and municipal taxes paid within the year, shall be deducted from the gains, profits, or income of the person who has actually paid the same, whether such person be owner, tenant or mortgagor; losses actually sustained during the year arising from fires, shipwreck, or incurred in trade, and debts ascertained to be worthless, but excluding all estimated depreciation of values and losses on sales of real estate within the year, purchased within two years previous to the year for which income is estimated; the amount actually paid for labor or interest by any person who rents lands, or hires labor to cultivate lands, or who conducts any other business from which income is actually derived; the amount paid out for usual or ordinary repairs, Provided, That no deduction shall be made for any amount paid out for new buildings, permanent improvements, or betterments, made to increase the value of any property or estates; And provided further, That only one deduction of six hundred dollars shall be made from the aggregate income of all the members of any family, composed of one or both parents, and one or more minor children, or husband and wife, that guardians shall be allowed to make such deduction in favor of each and every ward, except that in case where two or more wards are comprised in one family, and have joint property interest, only one deduction shall be made in their favor. And provided, That in cases where the salary or other compensation paid to any person in the employment or service of the United States shall not exceed the rate of six hundred dollars per annum, or shall be by fees, or uncertain or irregular in the amount or in the time during which the same shall have accrued or been earned, such salary or other compensation shall be included in estimating the annual gains, profits or income of the person to whom the same shall have been paid, in such manner as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe.

Provided further, That the exemption aforesaid shall in all cases be confined exclusively to said articles in the state and condition specified in the foregoing enumeration, and shall not extend to articles in any other form, nor to manufactures from said articles.

Every distiller or brewer, before commencing business, must give bonds to the collector, that he will conform to all the requirements of the revenue law, relating to distillers and brewers. They are also required to have an inspector who is appointed by [illegible] constantly in the distillery, whose salary is five dollars per day, and such fees as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may allow for every gallon distilled. These fees are to be paid by the distiller.

And be it further enacted, That all official communications between the officers in the Internal Revenue Department may be officially franked, and when so franked be transmitted by mail free of postage.

All taxes relating to licenses take effect September 1st, 1866.

All taxes relating to manufacturers take effect August 1st, 1866.

All taxes relating to stamp duties take effect October 1st, 1866.

Approved July 13th, 1866.

Prices Greatly Reduced

LEFFEL'S
American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to
